Director of Electric Engineering and Operations

The City of Thomasville, GA, located in southeast Georgia approximately 35 miles from Tallahassee, Florida, is accepting candidate applications for the position of Director of Electric Engineering & Electric Operations. This position is responsible for all of the duties to include but not limited to the oversight and management of Thomasville Utilities Electric Distribution, including, Engineering, Operations and Warehouse. The position has oversight for goal setting, policy development, budget management, staff development and contract management.

Candidates should have extensive knowledge and understanding of national electrical codes, federal regulations, industry standards and distribution construction techniques. BA, EE or closely related degree and 10 years of management experience including electric distribution/transmission systems, electric engineering and utility operations is preferred; or any equivalent combination of education, training, and experience that provides the requisite knowledge, skills and abilities for this position. Candidate should have knowledge of Engineering principles and standards, complemented with strong leadership, organizational and project management skills.

Position is open until filled.

Applications are available online at www.hrjobscityofthomasvillega.com. Please submit resumes with application. Position open until filled. Salary commensurate with education and experience.

We comply with the Drug Free Workplace Guidelines. EOE